

Bonneygrove Primary School Newsletter

11th October 2019

Message from Mrs Gable

We have tested the heating and the water proofing of our new roofs and I am pleased to report that all are in good working order. As we approach the half term break, our grounds are being prepared for the winter weather and the darker evenings. We will be installing lighting this year that will light the paths between our buildings more fully. Our children have been practising their harvest songs and they are looking forward to celebrating Harvest Festival next week.

Well Done Bonneygrove!

Children have been practising for our Harvest Assembly next week - songs and actions to delight and entertain!

Bonneygrove goes to the polls!

Last week saw election fever grip Bonneygrove as elections were held for the School Council for 2019-20.

Children from Years 2 to 6 gave a short presentation to their classes to say why they wanted to be on the School Council, before having the chance to vote for their representative and placing their vote into a ballot box.

Well done to everyone who gave a presentation! Congratulations to: Kya (Clover), Natalia (Primrose), Ronnie (Woodpecker), Jason and Phoebe (Robin), Jude (Finch), Ela A. (Heron), Lacey (Kite), Alfie and Bejna (Merlin), Lola (Kestral) and Efe (Eagle).

PLEASE BE REMINDED TO LABEL ALL YOUR CHILDREN'S ITEMS IN SCHOOL. WE SEEM TO BE GATHERING UP LOTS OF UNMARKED UNIFORM, COATS, LUNCH BOXES AND WATER BOTTLES. THANK YOU
