Dear Parents and Carers

Thank you for your kind words of welcome last week – they were greatly appreciated. I am looking forward to getting to know all of you over the year.

As part of my introduction, I will be starting Headteacher conferences over the next two weeks on a Tuesday and a Thursday between 9.30 am, and 11.30 am. These meetings will allow parents and carers to come and talk to me about any issues relating to their child's education. They will also allow you to make suggestions about how the school can support and develop additional extracurricular opportunities - your viewpoints are essential in ensuring the best educational experiences for the children at Bonneygrove.

If you would like a 15-minute consultation, please speak to Mrs Dawn Thomas on the school office number: 01992 307900. Places are limited, and therefore making an early call should secure a meeting time. Should any parent or carer want to discuss an issue outside of these meetings, please do not hesitate to call the main office, and I will be more than happy to schedule an appointment for you.

Yours faithfully

Mr Craig Hamilton
