Dear Parents and Carers,

Re: Temporary Teaching Arrangements – Miss Kingham's Class

I am writing to inform you that Miss Kingham will be absent from school for the next four weeks due to personal reasons.

During this period, the children will continue to be taught by familiar members of our teaching team. Miss Wynne will teach the class for three days each week (Wednesday, Thursday and Friday), with Mrs Ogunyemi providing teaching for the remaining two days (Monday and Tuesday).

Both teachers have worked with the class previously and know the children well. As a result, we anticipate a smooth transition and do not expect these temporary arrangements to cause any disruption to the children's learning or daily routines.

I would also like to reassure you that both Miss Wynne and Mrs Ogunyemi will remain with the class until the Christmas holidays, providing consistency and continuity for the children.

I remain in contact with Miss Kingham and will keep parents and carers informed of any further developments, as appropriate.

The children have already been made aware of these arrangements, and we will continue to support them throughout this period.

Thank you for your continued understanding and support. I am confident that, with the familiar faces of Miss Wynne and Mrs Ogunyemi, the children will continue to enjoy a positive and productive learning experience.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Craig Hamilton
